

Before I sleep:

Id be tempted
just for a while should I
stop here

This wood's so dark
the snow lays gently
should I
pause here

-I promised you that I would come home
-but this wood's so deep and I'm so cold
could I
stop here

I don't recall
where my town is

how far ahead
this road must lead
Could I
rest here

I got miles to go
miles to go...

should i... should i... should i..... stop
heeeere
